Extra capacity for your next room project

Bring us a measured brief. We can discuss layout development, relevant elevations, rendered views and a coordinated PDF with an agreed cabinet or product schedule.

A defined scope, before you commit

Every trade project is quoted individually. We agree deliverables, revisions, price and a realistic date in writing. Native CAD files, supplier catalogues and white labelling require express agreement. There is no automatic retainer or minimum volume.

Start with the essentials

Send your dimensioned sketch, room photographs, chosen range or products, fixed services, customer priorities and target date. Your team retains site, supplier and ordering checks. Surveying, engineering, installation and project management are excluded.
